99.1 A report of Bezeq - The Israel Telecommunication Corp. Ltd., a subsidiary of B Communications Ltd., filed with the Israel Securities Authority and the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange \("Approval of petitioner's withdrawal from a class action previously filed against D.B.S."\)

Re: Approval of petitioner's withdrawal from a class action previously filed against D.B.S.

Further to the previous report of Bezeq, from April 2016, regarding a claim and class action certification motion filed against DBS Satellite Services (1998) Ltd. ("Yes"), with the Tel Aviv District Court - Bezeq has further announced today that a judgment was rendered by the Tel Aviv District Court approving the petitioner's withdrawal from the proceeding and also dismissed any further personal claims, as were filed under such proceedings.

In the Original claim, as was filed (and dismissed), and according to the petitioners, the term included in Yes's contract with its customers, whereby the possibility of "freezing" a subscription for a limited time period and avoiding payment of subscription fees for such period was for a minimum period of thirty days (hereinafter, the "Condition") was a discriminatory and unreasonable term in a standard contract. The plaintiffs further asserted that Yes enables a subscription to be "frozen" for a shorter period for customers who contact it in this regard via telephone - a fact which amounts to consumer deception and bad faith conduct in breach, inter alia, of the Contracts Law, consumer protection laws and the Unjust Enrichment Law. In the Original claim as was filed and dismissed, The court was further requested to order Yes to compensate its customers for the periods in which they allegedly did not use its services but were allegedly denied the right to freeze their subscription in light of such Term, in an aggregate of NIS 736 million.

Sincerely,
Bezeq Israel Telecommunications Corporation Ltd.
